

ARE YOU THINKING OF BEING A MUSIC MAJOR AT NORTHEAST?

Kevin McLouth

MUSIC INSTRUCTOR/ DIRECTOR OF INSTRUMENTAL ACTIVITIES

Kevin has over 30 years of teaching experience in education ranging from 4th grade to sophomores in college. He has a music education degree from Dickinson State University (Dickinson, ND) and a Master of Music from the University of South Dakota (Vermillion, SD). At Northeast, Mr. McLouth directs the Concert Band, the Jazz Band, and the Ear Training Sequence. He has performed in a variety of situations, ranging from jazz artists to playing in the South Dakota Symphony. In demand as a clinician and artist, Kevin continues to play in the Sioux City Municipal Band, A Touch of Brass, and his jazz quintet (The Jazz Experiment), as well as leading the Northeast Area Jazz Ensemble.

Margaret Schultz

MUSIC INSTRUCTOR/ ACCOMPANIST

Margaret originally hails from Iowa, where she earned her degree from Morningside College. After teaching public school music and completing a M.M. from the University of South Dakota, she began teaching at Northeast Community College in 1985 for nine years as adjunct. After teaching full-time at a four-year private college where she was the Department Chair and choral director, she came back "home" to Northeast in 2009. She has been a guest conductor for honor festivals, directed a summer teen tour program, served as music director and performer for Wayne Community Theater summer musicals and is a board member of the Norfolk Area Concert Association. As a long time educator and musician, she remains active in adjudication, as a performer in various genre venues and as a regular church musician. She currently serves as Music Instructor and Accompanist.
